

COMPANY OVERVIEW

The security professionals at AGB are driven to protect your people, property, and data. Since 2001, we are the only full-service security company in the Midwest that combines state-of-the-art technology with physical security and education. AGB uses these resources to address emerging threats that our clients in the public and private sectors face. AGB is financially stable, and offers world-class security services backed by ISO 9001:2015. AGB's world-class training has reduced crime by 90% in the Chicago Housing Authority (2016-2018).
